I started coding in 2016 for my job assignment. I then learned coding full-time for 3-months in General Assembly, Singapore. I am now a junior full-stack developer fluent in JavaScript and Ruby, back-end frameworks Node.js, Rails, Express.js, and experienced modern front-end frameworks React.js and Socket.io.

I spent my free time learning new skills, playing sports and solving problems with friends. I hope to continue crafting innovative solutions to touch every life.
